Reflections on the 5th Sunday of Easter - May 2, 2021 – Fr. Gary Luiten

I couldn't help but notice that during this beautiful Spring-time of year the trees are beginning to bud. In the gospel for this weekend, Jesus says that He is the vine, and we are the branches. I like to use the analogy of a tree, where the vine is the trunk. This means that we are all connected to the trunk, to the vine, to a greater or lesser degree. One of the things you may notice on a tree, is that some of the branches are stronger than others. If you were to climb a tree, there are some branches you know you would stay away from because they wouldn't support you. They would break off. Trust me, I know by experience. I fell out of a tree when I was 7 years old and broke my arm! And there are some of the members of the Body of Christ who are not very well-connected to the vine, and actually cause the whole church to not look so well. I think it is safe to say that at times we are all in that boat, which is why we need to get a better hold on the trunk - to Jesus - to help bring us to life.

And where the branches connect to the trunk, carrying out this analogy with the vine a little further, is where the sacraments are. They are means God uses to help us to become good, strong, healthy branches in spirit (which has an impact on our bodies, too).

And, using the image of the tree further - if you notice under a large tree with big, large branches, oftentimes nothing grows under them. This can be bad, for example grass can't grow, and flowers can't grow. But this can also be good, because weeds can't grow, either. So, it depends how you look at it. So, when we are firmly rooted in Jesus and His church, then we have a healthy tree - a healthy church - and no weeds can grow under or around the tree. And here, the weeds represent sin and the power of evil in our lives. If we remain close to Christ, sin loses its power, and we begin to live in peace with others.

So, with God's help, we will continue to remain strong in our faith, we will continue to remain firmly rooted to the vine - to Jesus, so that we may remain the beautiful people that God has made, bearing much spiritual fruit.

Since this is the first bulletin of the month, I have a couple of other items to share with you.

1. Church Flooring. We have not yet heard from the company that will be installing the church flooring. We are getting a good deal through the diocese and hopefully we will have new porcelain tile flooring sometime this Spring or Summer.
2. Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. On Sunday, June 6, the parish will celebrate our Feast Day. Bishop Folda will be here for the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Bishop will bless our new cross and prayer garden on the north side of the church. We also plan on having a Eucharistic procession outside following Mass. Read your bulletin for more information. All are invited to attend.
3. My Mother. Some of you may have noticed that my mom has been with me the last couple of weeks. On Divine Mercy Sunday, the Lord decided to show His mercy and let my mom live! There was a fire in her apartment. She lost some furniture however, everything in her apartment retained smoke damage. Thankfully, she was at Mass at the time. A candle that she had lit when she prayed earlier that morning either re-lit or didn't go out completely. Thankfully, the Lord showed more mercy, because we found out she has renter's insurance, which she had forgotten about. Insurance will take care of most of the cleaning and replacement of furniture. Please keep her in your prayers. She will be with me for the next several weeks until her possessions get cleaned and the new apartment is ready.
4. Summer Mass Schedule. Summer Mass schedule will begin on Sunday, June 13. We will only have one Sunday Mass - at 9:30 a.m., in addition to the usual 5:15 p.m. Mass on Saturday. Also, for you going to the lakes for the summer, know that you are in my prayers. It is good to hear that many of you are attending Mass where you will be. I enjoy reading bulletins from your travels. Thank you to all who have brought one back for me. Let us pray for one another, and don't forget to come back in the Fall!

What it Means to Have the Mass Dispensation Lifted

Canon law states, "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass." There is the reason behind the rule.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the Eucharist "the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice." As a result, "the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin."

Look at your lives at this moment. Are you meeting with groups of people, perhaps attending sporting events and participating in other forms of entertainment, but not attending Mass? The Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith, but are we making other things a priority in our lives at this time?

The Blessed Virgin Mary

May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins reflected on this in his poem "The May Magnificat." He wondered if May is Mary's month because it is brighter and sunnier. After the April showers there are the May flowers. Spring is in full bloom and everywhere we look, we see things growing. Mary sees it all. Mother Nature reminds her of her own motherhood.

All things rising, all things sizing
Mary sees, sympathizing
With that world of good
Nature's motherhood.
Their magnifying of each its kind
With delight calls to mind
How she did in her stored
Magnify the Lord.

Each blade of grass, spring flower, cumulus cloud, or robin's egg reflects the beauty of the Creator. Nature is engaged in a symphony of praise. Even more wonderful is the human contribution. Nature magnifies or gives praise to God simply because of what it is. But human beings, with free will, can choose not to join the symphony. We can sin. However, when we choose to give glory to God, the beauty of creation is magnified, made even more beautiful because the greatest note – love – has been added to the song of praise.

We Pray:

God of nature, I praise and thank you for the beauty of creation and for your most perfect work – Mary – whom you made without sin in order to be the Mother of your Son. May I, like Mary, say yes to all you want of me today. I offer this day to you with love, asking that it may join the chorus of praise that rises to you from all over the earth.

The Word

Praise and glory to you!
