Flooring for the Church. There has been a delay in the installation of new tile flooring in the church. Because of the Pandemic, ceramic tile is in short supply. We have been contacting several companies to inquire about their supply and getting new quotes for the project. We still plan to have the tile installed in the church in 2021. The flooring replacement is part of the Building Firm Foundation Campaign. Phase 1: replacement of furnaces and air ducts (2019-20); phase 2a: replacement of flooring in the church (2021); phase 2b: replacement of flooring in Sacristy, Family Room and Social Hall (2022). We will keep you updated.

Reflections on the Gospel for the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 20, 2021 Fr. Gary Luiten

If today we were to have another name other than the “12th Sunday in Ordinary Time,” or “Father’s Day,” looking at the readings for the day, it would probably be “Storm Sunday,” since the readings are about storms. It seems that Jesus allows the storms in life to happen in order to give us an opportunity to firm up our faith. It is when faith oftentimes becomes stronger. Having faith when all is well and good is easy but when life is rough, that’s when faith is put to the test.

Although the disciples had a lack of faith in Jesus, they did one thing right, they turned to Jesus for help in the presence of evil, and Jesus helped them. Recall in the gospel, how a bad storm blew up. And we knew it was bad, because even those experienced fishermen feared for their lives! But Jesus awoke and came to their rescue by calming the storm.

Does this incident in the gospel today ring a bell? It rang a bell with the early church. There was persecution after persecution. Today, we too, can relate to Jesus’ disciples in the boat. We all at times have or have had bad storms. Sometimes we wonder how we are going to make it through them. But eventually we do, by the grace of God.

We can even become stronger because of those storms. Sometimes we have storms which involve relationships with others. And where there’s interaction, and considering the imperfect world in which we live, there are bound to be disagreements. And when we encounter those tense disagreements in life, then we need God all the more to help change us.

In these relationships, particular people we can pray for are our fathers on this Father’s Day weekend. Prayer, even praying for others, like our Fathers, has a neat side effect of helping us survive the storms of life.

So let us not become discouraged but rather trust in the Lord’s help. God can make anything happen if He wants to. But we need to have faith. Remember what Jesus asked the disciples, “Why are you lacking in faith?” Hopefully, He doesn’t have to ask us that same question. May we all go forward this week in the new life God gives us so the Lord’s glory may be shown through us and so we may allow the Lord to calm the storms in our lives.

Mission Statement:

As loving disciples, we the faith community of Blessed Sacrament, strive for full and active participation in joyfully serving Christ while recognizing the gifts and dignity of all.
