Eucharistic Adoration/Exposition.

Eucharistic Adoration is when the Eucharist is exposed for viewing. At the beginning of the exposition of the Eucharist, Fr. Gary removes the sacred host from the tabernacle and places it in the monstrance on the altar for adoration by the faithful. The exposed Eucharist must not be left alone. Blessed Sacrament parish will hold Exposition/Adoration on Friday, July 2 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Flooring for the Church. There has been a delay in the installation of new tile flooring in the church. Because of the Pandemic, ceramic tile is in short supply. We have been contacting several companies to inquire about their supply and getting new quotes for the project. We still plan to have the tile installed in the church in 2021. The flooring replacement is part of the Building Firm Foundation Campaign.

Landscaping. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the Parish Office and they will connect you with the coordinators of the project.

Parish Office is Looking for Volunteer Assistance. Are you interested in computer technology? Do you have a few hours a month that you could volunteer to the church? We are looking for assistance with keeping our Website updated and a few other technical tasks. This is a volunteer position. Please contact the Parish Office if you have questions. 701-282-3321.

Trivia

Blasphemy means...

- a) Speaking or acting against God
- b) Blowing up a building with dynamite
- c) Being sly
- d) Having a good time at a party

(a) Because blasphemy is contrary to the respect due God and his name, it is a sin against the second commandment.

Mission Statement:

As loving disciples, we the faith community of Blessed Sacrament, strive for full and active participation in joyfully serving Christ while recognizing the gifts and dignity of all.

Reflections from the readings for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 26-27, 2021
– Fr. Gary Luiten

Life, death, and our health is what the readings are about today – in particular the first reading and the gospel. Regarding death, occasionally, we have tragic deaths in the area. Sometimes when we are in the midst of such evils, one's thought processes become confused. Sometimes we can even begin to think that death is something that comes from God. So where does death come from? We heard in the first reading that death ultimately is a result of the Evil One.

And death didn't just come from the devil, but it came from the envy of the devil. This goes to show us that envy produces nothing good. And yet envy can be such a temptation for many people. We want to be like others. We see their good qualities – their joy, their happiness, their possessions, and one may even resent them because they have those qualities and possessions and we do not. We must keep reminding ourselves, then, that death, envy, jealousy, and all those other evils are not from God.

In contrast to death, our God is not a God of death, but a god of life – the God of life! To illustrate this, Wisdom tells us today that "God fashioned all things that they might have being. God formed humanity to be imperishable!" In fact, God's life was given generously in the gospel when we saw how Jesus healed the woman with a hemorrhage and how he also raised Jairus' daughter from the dead.

God desires greatly to give you and me His life in an even fuller way. We are called to turn to Jesus, and not as a last resort (as it seems the woman with the hemorrhage did). One very powerful way He gives us His life is in the sacrament of Reconciliation – humbling ourselves in God's presence and in the presence of the priest by admitting of our mistakes and seeking to become more like Jesus. This allows Jesus to remove those barriers which keep us from becoming one with Him. God's life will make it easier for us to dwell on the positive – to see the good things in others, and to rejoice in them – that God has blest them in so many ways

May we not turn to God out of fear, or as a last resort, but may we keep Him first in our lives, and continue to strive to do what He asks of us, out of love and obedience to Him, so he may live and work in and through us.

Community / Diocesan Events

Dementia Webinar – 'Effective Communication Strategies' Wednesday, July 7, 12-1 p.m. To register phone: 701-330-2626. As people with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias progress in their journey, families need new ways to connect. Join us to explore how communication takes place when someone has Alzheimer's, learn to decode the verbal and behavioral messages delivered by someone with dementia, and identify strategies to help you connect and communicate at each stage of the disease. Sponsored by the Alzheimer's Association Minnesota-North Dakota.
