Celebrating Advent is an excellent way to prepare your mind and heart for Christmas.

The Advent Wreath and Candles

The wreath is meant to remind us of both the immortality of our souls and God's promise of everlasting life to us through Christ.

The candles Four candles represent the four weeks of Advent, one candle is lit each Sunday, signifies a time of prayer, penance, and sacrifice. A Fifth candle represents purity.

Week Three: The third candle is pink and symbolizes joy. It is called the "Shepherd's Candle," and is pink because rose is a liturgical color for joy. The third Sunday of Advent is Gaudete Sunday and is meant to remind us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus, as well as the joy that the faithful have reached the midpoint of Advent.

Reflections on the Readings for the Third Sunday of Advent - December 11, 2022
Fr. Gary Luiten

The focus for this third Sunday of Advent is to rejoice. We have many reasons to rejoice. First, Jesus has already come once, over two thousand years ago, and we rejoice because he will come again someday to take us home. When we look forward to our eternal goal, we are even allowed to rejoice in any misery we may experience because we know that any pain we may endure in this life will not last forever and someday we will reach the light at the end of the tunnel!

And in looking forward to Christmas, we can rejoice for many reasons. One reason many people look forward to Christmas is because they know there are going to be gifts given and received. When you think about it, the idea of giving presents at Christmas is an appropriate thing. To overdo it and to go broke giving gifts is not such a good thing, though. The giving of gifts is appropriate because this giving represents the giving of the greatest gift, the gift of Jesus to the world given to us by the Father.

Little children at this time of year may look at their wrapped gifts and wonder, "Is Christmas EVER going to get here?" There really is nothing we can do to quicken the coming of Christmas or the coming of Christ. But we can change the way we prepare for that coming.

One thing we can do to prepare for the coming is to be patient. The Lord will come with justice. Those who have offended us unjustly will be justly treated by the Lord, and hopefully with mercy, too, and those who have suffered injustice will be rewarded. In fact, even James tells us in the second reading to be patient until the coming of the Lord.

The theme of the readings today, besides to rejoice, is to be patient because the best is yet to come. May heaven which we are all striving for and the coming of our Lord help us to be patient and even to rejoice in our limitations as we await Jesus' coming again.

Mission Statement:

As loving disciples, we the faith community of Blessed Sacrament, strive for full and active participation in joyfully serving Christ while recognizing the gifts and dignity of all.

Diocesan Synod/Eucharistic Conference

Attention Blessed Sacrament Parishioners!

We are looking for a few Good Catholics to represent Blessed Sacrament during the Prayer and Listening Session with Bishop Folda. Sunday January 22, 2:00-4:30 p.m. Holy Cross Parish.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that a diocesan synod is "an assembly of priests and other members of Christ's faithful who assist the bishop by offering advice about the needs of the diocese and by proposing legislation for him to enact". The word "synod" comes from the Greek and signifies "walking together" or taking a common road together. This diocesan synod is distinct from the Synod of Bishops that will meet in Rome in 2023, and it will deal more directly with the needs and mission of our own diocesan Church.

Please contact the Parish Office if you are interested in participating in this opportunity to shape the future of our Church 701-282-3321.

Join Bishop John Folda at any of these Regional Listening Sessions

The Regional Listening Sessions will begin with adoration, reflection on Scripture, and prayer. This will be followed by a time in a gathering space to discuss and to reflect together as a community on these questions: What are the top three things that are working well at your parish/the diocese? What are the top three challenges to address in your parish/the diocese? What is one step I might be called to take to respond? All of the faithful are encouraged and invited to attend these events. For more information, go to:

www.fargodiocese.org/synod.
