Parish Life

BINGO – Join us for Bingo on Sundays January 22 & 29 sponsored by our youth! Big winners last Sunday were:

Black Out: Kathleen Jalbert, won $25.

50/50: Jackie Krei, won $52! Congratulations!

Bulletin Deadline: Articles are due to Mary Beth in the Parish Office, Tuesdays by Noon, for the following Sunday. Drop them off in the office or email MaryBeth@bscwf.org.

Children's Collection: All Faith Formation students have been given donation envelopes. Children not in Faith Formation have been offered envelopes. Please encourage your child to use them! Teach your children that giving to their church is a blessed action. Our hope is to receive $30 per week from the 'Children's Collection'. We have 144 youth ages 4-18 here at Blessed Sacrament. That is an average of .21 cents per week per child. A small donation each week goes a long way.

Catholic Schools Week.

Catholic Schools Week is January 29 through February 4. We ask that you support one or more of the three things Blessed Sacrament is doing for JPII Schools and specifically Trinity Elementary.

1. Make a JPII donation by using an JPII envelope or cut out the section in this bulletin.
2. Donate to the Trinity School Lunch Program.
3. Attend the Spaghetti Dinner on February 4.

Spaghetti Dinner To celebrate Catholic Schools week. Saturday, February 4, 6-7 p.m. Hosted by our Knights of Columbus. Proceeds will go toward our JPII stipend fund.

Trinity School Lunch Program. Throughout the United States, it has become apparent that the economy is having a direct impact on families struggling to pay for their children(s) meals at school. West Fargo Trinity Elementary is experiencing the same issue. No student goes away hungry, the school is absorbing the balance for unpaid meals. What we'd like to do this year, for Trinity Elementary, is to raise money for their student meal program. In honor of Catholic Schools Week, for the month of January, we will collect donations for "Trinity School Lunch Program." The donation box will be in the Gathering Area. Please place your contributions in the box. Checks can be written to Blessed Sacrament.

Reflections by Fr. Gary Luiten

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time January 15th, 2023

The past three Sundays have been celebrations of enlightenment for the Church because the celebrations have all involved a gradual revealing bit by bit of who God is. This weekend we learn even more about Jesus. We learn that not only is Jesus from Bethlehem, the son of Mary and Joseph, and the Father's Son, but also Jesus is the lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. And you and I have been called by this God who loves us so much to do something. What is it we are called to do? To answer that, we must look at the first reading, and compare ourselves to Isaiah the prophet.

In many ways we are called to be like the prophet Isaiah. He was called to be a "light to the nations." For us, it means to be a light to help others see the light of Christ. We do so by being that example for them of a good and faithful Catholic Christian. This is done through God's help which is given to us in the Sacraments. This will help us to bear our crosses patiently whatever they may be. Patient acceptance of our crosses goes a long way not only in helping to lead others to Christ but in storing up for ourselves treasure in Heaven!

We can also be a light to the nations by praying for them. I hope you pray for me. I pray for you every day, sometimes several times a day. May you and I through what we say and do be a light to the nations and a shining light of hope for the world as we strive to follow Jesus each day of our lives.

Stewardship Moment

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..."

Isaiah 49:5

God has given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Do not let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

“The Word Became Flesh.”

Next Steps for the Diocesan Synod.

When I announced last summer that the Diocese of Fargo would hold a diocesan synod, I explained our need to prayerfully reflect on the state of our diocese and how we can carry forward the mission that Jesus has entrusted to his Church, a mission to live the Gospel and to “make disciples of all nations” (Matt. 28:19). This is not a task only for the bishop, or only for priests and religious. It is a calling and a responsibility of all the faithful, and we all have a part to play in the work of the Church in our diocese. Over the last two months, many of you have responded to the parish self-reflection survey that we made available, which gathered information and offered an opportunity to ask: where am I in my faith life, and where should I be?

Now we have arrived at another stage of preparation for our diocesan synod. Regional listening sessions will begin in mid-January and take place at 15 locations throughout the diocese. We will begin each session with a time of Scripture reflection and prayer before our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, realizing that Jesus is the head of the Church, and we draw our life from him, especially through the Eucharist. This time of prayer will be followed by time to reflect and discuss as a faith community on a few key questions: What are the top three things that are working well at your parish/diocese? What are the top three challenges to address in your parish/diocese? What is one step I might be called to take to respond? We won’t be putting the tenets of our faith up for a vote, but we will consider how we are living the faith, and how we can live it more fully in our diocese. We will listen to the Holy Spirit, who guides and empowers the Church, and we will listen to each other as well. I intend to be present at each of these listening sessions, and I hope you will make an effort to attend and participate in these gatherings to give input for our synod. Page 2 in this edition of New Earth provides the locations and dates of each session.

Based on this consultation process, and with your assistance, I will formulate the significant issues and questions that should guide the rest of our synod.

A synod is an act of the Church, and the word “synod” literally means “walking” or “journeying together.” Our diocesan synod, the first in 70 years, will be an occasion for all of us to listen to the voice of our Lord as we strive to follow him more closely and carry forward the work he has given his Church to do in the Diocese of Fargo. The listening sessions that we are planning will be an opportunity to gather and “walk together” in faith, to pray together before our Eucharistic Lord, and to share the fruits of our reflection with one another. We will listen and discuss how the Holy Spirit is guiding and inspiring the bishop, the clergy, and all the people of our diocese. It is meant to be a communal exercise with Christ at its center, so I hope to see many of you in attendance.

As we continue our synodal journey, let us finally ask the intercession of Mary Immaculate, the Mother of the Church and the patroness of our diocese. Just as she listened and heard the voice of God at the moment of the incarnation, so may we listen to his voice and respond with faith, humility, and courage.
