Holy Thursday, Stew Supper: Thursday, April 6, 5:30-6:30 p.m. You are all invited to dine with us on Holy Thursday. Free Will Offering (proceeds go to the Poor Fund.). We share a meal with you as a symbol of the last supper. The last meal Jesus shared with his disciples. All Are Welcome! You are also welcome to join us for Mass, following supper, at 7:00 p.m. We will experience the Passion of our Lord.

Lenten Progress. We are half-way through Lent. How has it been going? Did you take time to reflect and participate in the interactive Lenten Display? If not, please take some time to do so. Don't forget to read the hearts on the cross. These are fellow parishioners that need prayers and strength for what they have written.

Lenten Regulations Everyone 14 years of age or older is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

Pack the Pew-Volunteers Needed! Next weekend after 10:30 a.m. Mass, we will need assistance as we pack up the food donations and divide them between Blessed Sacrament and the Emergency Food Pantry. If you can help us out, we'd appreciate it.

What is Palm Sunday?

Palm Sunday is celebrated the week before Easter. Catholics carry blessed palm branches into church with them - this is in remembrance of when Jesus entered Jerusalem. The story of Jesus' death and his Passion are read as the Gospel.

How to Observe Palm Sunday

Sunday Mass on Palm Sunday includes two readings from the Gospels. We hear about when Jesus entered Jerusalem at the start of Mass. And we read the Passion account during the Liturgy of the Word. A great way to start your Holy Week is by reflecting on Jesus' passion.

After attending Mass it's common to display your palm. Some place it behind a crucifix, some take several palm branches and weave them together to create a palm cross. Since palm branches are a sacramental item (because they are blessed), they should not be thrown away. You can return your branch to the church where it will be burned for ashes the following Ash Wednesday.

FORMED – What to Watch. As we continue our Lenten journey toward a closer relationship with God, this week's suggestions to view on FORMED include the following under the Lenten tab. The Three Temptations with Dr. Brant Pitre. Dr. Pitre gives an insightful look at not only the three temptations by the devil that Jesus experienced while he was in the desert preparing for His ministry, but how his experiences relate back to the three temptations of Adam and Eve and what Jesus gives as a remedy to the temptations we all experience today and every day. Don't miss this one. Another suggestion is viewing Into His Likeness with Dr. Edward Sri where we are given food for thought on where we can find the Gaps in our faith lives in episode one and where we can come to understand what it means to put Jesus first in our lives in episode two.

Books that you might want to consider reading during the remainder of Lent and into Holy Week are No Greater Love, A Biblical Walk-Through Christ's Passion by Edward Sri and published by Ascension Press as well as The Last Hours of Jesus, From Gethsemane to Golgotha by Fr. Ralph Gorman and published by Sophia Institute Press. Order online or check with Hurley's or Holy Family bookstore for your copy.

The 4th Sunday of Lent - March 19, 2023

In this weekend's gospel Jesus cures a blind man. And curing is one thing that God can do for us too! God cures us from our spiritual sicknesses. In contemporary society we have the danger to think, "There's nothing spiritually wrong with me. I don't kill people. I don't rob banks. I don't steal cars. I don't commit adultery." And that's when we need to turn to the scriptures where it says in Romans 3:23, "All have sinned. And that's where the Sacrament of reconciliation comes in.

And why does God choose to use the priest for the forgiveness of sins? The Lord is the ultimate one to ask about this. But I presume it is because we humans have the need to hear the words, "I absolve you" after committing an offense against God and others. God could have said, "Turn to me in the privacy of your own home and ask for forgiveness from any sins you have, and they will be forgiven," but he didn't. He gave us the sacrament of reconciliation as an instrument of God's forgiveness like the paste he used to cure the blind man. For those of you who missed the reconciliation service on Thursday or who haven't gone to reconciliation for a while, there are still opportunities. We still have 4:00 p.m. reconciliation available on Saturday afternoons. There are also other reconciliation services scheduled throughout the area. Check the bulletin for times.

And so, on this 4th Sunday of Lent, also called Laetare Sunday, which means "Rejoice Sunday," there is cause to rejoice. There is someone who cares enough to heal us spiritually and even physically at times. We know someone supports us. God desires to bring us peace and joy. So, even though we are fasting and meditating on the passion and death of Jesus, we do it joyfully, realizing that we have found the answer to our

Mission Statement:

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart."

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. However, none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

2023 Pastoral Council Candidates

Voting is March 25-26 at all Masses.

Robert Norton and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: JoLyssa, Brekken, and BreLee. They have been members of Blessed Sacrament for the last 6 years. Their family has been involved at Blessed Sacrament by being greeters and gift bearers and Robert an usher. He is currently employed at West Funeral Home as a funeral director. Robert enjoys the outdoors; especially hunting, fishing, golfing, camping with his family and many other outdoor activities. He continues to grow in his faith and provide his family with spiritual guidance. He would love to sit on Parish Council.

Mary Pierce. My husband, Matt, and I have 4 children, three daughters and one son. We are often referred to as the "M family" as all our names start with M. I enjoy spending my free time with my family and friends, being outside (except in the winter), and reading or doing art projects. I work as a church administrator at a Lutheran church. I like my job, the people that I work with, and feel it's given me many insights into the behind the scenes at a church community. I am a big believer in the church community. Familiarity, connections, and relationships with other members are such an important aspect of church life. When you feel connected, you feel more invested and want to be more involved. I would love to see more church community bonding. I would also like to see more family activities at Blessed Sacrament to help families, especially those with young children who find it hard to go to or do things with them, be more active in the church.

Ally Schweitzer. Hello, my name is Ally Schweitzer. I grew up in West Fargo. I have my master's degree in healthcare administration. Blessed Sacrament is home to me. I grew up in this parish. I have seen our parish grow and change over many years, but I love that our sense of community always stays the same. As a youth, I was involved in WOW and joined in the first Peru mission trip in 2013. I've been a catechist for several years now. I have been involved with vacation bible school and teaching faith formation classes for the past 8 years. I was elected to the Parish Council in 2020 and I am running for re-election. I love being able to represent our parishioners and bring new ideas to the council. I would like to get more young adults and youth involved in our parish activities and ministries. It would be a blessing to serve on parish council for another 3 years.

Rob Haugen. I was born and raised in North Dakota and attended the University of Minnesota and graduated with degrees in Economics and Computer Science. I lived in the Twin Cities a number of years and returned to my beautiful home state and have been living in the FM area since 2007. What brought me back was family, the wonderful people of this state and area. What I enjoy most is working with people and the ability to become involved in the community and my church through volunteer work and have met so many more wonderful people by doing so. In 2016 I purchased a home in West Fargo and have been a member of Blessed Sacrament Catholic church since 2018 which has strengthened my Catholic faith even more. As a member of the Parish Council, I would strive to expand our parish membership and the values of Catholicism by working and reaching out to people of all ages, especially young people and new residents of our community.
