LENTEN PROJECTS ARE GOING WELL – Thank you to those that have been participating.

1. Prayer Project: There are a lot of prayer requests on the cross. Please remove as many as you want from the cross and pray for those intentions. We all need thoughts and prayers. . Why remove a slip? We want to make sure all requests are being prayed for.
2. Continue removing the thorns from the crown. Lots of thorns have been removed already but there are plenty left. Keep up the amazing work of acts of kindness, good deeds, positive influences, etc. REMEMBER: the object is to have that crown empty by Good Friday.

NOTE: As you remove the "thorn(s)" use caution so as not to poke yourself as they are sharp. And yet, He continued to do God's will all the way unto the cross.

Shrove Tuesday. In western Christian churches, the day before Lent starts is Shrove Tuesday. This is also known as Pancake Day. This day was traditionally the last chance to use up the foods Christians would not be eating during Lent. Pancakes became associated with Shrove Tuesday as they were a simple meal that could use up all the eggs, fats, and milk in the house with just the addition of flour. Each year women from the town of Olney in Buckinghamshire race through the streets, tossing pancakes in a frying pan. Children from local schools take part in their own races.

Reflections by Fr. Gary Luiten

the 3rd Sunday of Lent - March 3, 2024

Jesus is giving us a lesson in the gospel, which is to respect the house of God. And, in respecting God's house, there's an all-encompassing motivation at work here, and that is the love of God, which is carried out in the first three commandments given in the book of Exodus today. Jesus took his relationship with the Father seriously, which is why he was so upset when his Father's house was not treated respectfully. Jesus loves the Father.

And there are different ways we can love God this Lenten season. We can receive the sacraments faithfully, including the sacrament of reconciliation. The Lenten Reconciliation Service this year will be Thursday evening, March 14, at 7 p.m. Let's pray for a good turn-out and that many people will come to receive God's gift of mercy.

And the last seven commandments are no less important. They concern love for neighbor. One way we can do that is to bring non-perishable food items for our "pack the pew" food drive. So, during this season of Lent, may God give us a deeper love for the Father and for each other, as temples of God and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Since this is the first bulletin of the month, I have a couple other items for you.

1. Lucy's retirement. Our Director of Religious Education, Lucy Elshaug, will be retiring at the end of May. She has been faithful and diligent in handing on the faith to many people over her 16 years of service here at Blessed Sacrament. Following Lucy's retirement, Julie, our parish life coordinator, will be taking over her position with help from our support staff, Mary Beth, until we find someone to fill Lucy's position. Thank you, Lucy, for your selfless dedication and commitment to our parish. Our prayers are with her as she finishes one chapter in her life and begins another. When you see her, wish her well.

2. Lenten Friday Evening Events. Stations of the Cross are being offered every Friday evening at 7 p.m. We have a wonderful version of the Stations which I find inspiring. We are showing different inspirational movies following Stations of the Cross. These movies are excellent and a wonderful way to enhance our Lenten journey. We will not show a movie on March 8. That evening we will have a parish fish fry. There will be a free-will offering for the fish fry. I will be the main cook for the meal. Help is always welcome. Please contact Julie in the Parish Office if you are willing to help.

National Eucharistic Congress

Will the event be live-streamed? Short answer: yes! Some content will be available to those who cannot attend in person and wish to bring the National Eucharistic Congress to their community. However, we encourage you to join us in person for the full experience.
