Lent

A Time of Transformation

Lent | Prayer, Fasting, Almsgiving

INTERACTIVE LENT ACTIVITIES in the Gathering Area A GREAT Thing to do as a Family!

Praying for Each Other. The wooden cross has prayer requests on it. These requests are from our parish family. Please take one or two requests off the cross and pray for that person or situation. Take one before Mass and pray for that intention during Mass. Take one after Mass and pray at home. This cross will remain in the Gathering Area throughout Lent and paper and pens will be available, if you would like to request prayer(s). Not only will more prayers be said for one another; we will also realize that we all need prayers for one struggle or another.

Relieve or Add to Jesus' Burden of Our Sins From the Crown of Thorns. The crown of thorns is now on a table in the Gathering Area. This crown will be packed with "thorns" (toothpicks) representing our sins. During the Lenten season we are encouraged to do a deep self-examination. To make inner changes to our hearts, minds, and souls. As you fast, pray, do almsgiving or any good deed we encourage you to pull a thorn out of the crown each week for each positive deed. 1 thorn = 1 good deed. Place the thorn(s) in the bowl on the table.

Take a moment to reflect to Jesus' time on earth and His Suffering. Remember it was placed on His head after He was already brutally scourged. This was not the "normal" execution. They placed the "crown of thorns" on His head to mock Him.

Say a prayer while removing the thorn(s). The intent is to lessen our sins which lessons Jesus' burden and helps us to realize what good people we truly are. This project is for the young, old and everyone in-between. Hopefully, as we concentrate on continuing to do good in our everyday lives it will become second nature and far outweigh any wrongdoing.

NOTE: As you remove the "thorn(s)" use caution so as not to poke yourself as they are sharp. And yet, He continued to do God's will all the way unto the cross.

Originally, Lent lasted for 36 days (excluding Sundays). Now, the 40 days of Lent are observed from Ash Wednesday to Easter, thought to remind Christians of the time Jesus spent in the wilderness. But you should know that Sundays aren't included in the 40 days, so technically, Lent lasts 46 days!

Thank you for your support.

Hello Blessed Sacrament!

My name is Killian Wells, and I recently earned the rank of Eagle Scout.

It's said that only 2% of all scouts will become Eagle, and I couldn't have joined that 2% without all of you.

My Eagle Scout project was building and installing 2 wooden nesting boxes for the lynxes at the Red River Zoo.

A few months ago, with my time running out, I gave a speech asking for donations from all of you wonderful people here at Blessed Sacrament, hoping to raise at least a little bit towards funding my project.

As soon as Mass ended, however, I immediately was swarmed by so many of you, who selflessly offered to support me and my dreams.

In total, from a single morning, I was able to fund my entire project nearly completely. You donated $466, which just blew me away!

Thank you all so much for your support and encouragement during the most important part of my journey to fulfill a decade long dream, I couldn't have done it without you!

God Bless you all!

Sincerely,
Killian Wells, Eagle Scout

Reflections by Fr. Gary Luiten

the 1st Sunday in Lent - February 18, 2024

You might ask what the reading about Noah and the ark has to do with Lent. You might think, "I thought we were supposed to be thinking about the forty days in the desert where there is a lack of water, and here we have the image of a flood, which is an overabundance of water! Actually, it is good to think of water during Lent because Lent leads to Easter, and at Easter, we have the renewal of baptismal promises. Peter in the second reading reminds us of how Jesus uses baptism to save and cleanse us. In the flood, God made a covenant with humanity. He promised never to destroy the earth with a flood again.

God has since made a new covenant with us in Jesus, marked with His blood. The Lord promises through the waters not of a flood, but of baptism, to make us His children. He promises to give us eternal life if we are faithful to Jesus. He promises never to give up on his end of the deal, even if we seriously offend God. God is still there calling us back and ready to welcome us whenever we allow Jesus to bring us to Him. And this is where the gospel today comes into play. We are called to keep up our end of the covenant. And that involves repentance and confession.

We are told about Jesus' forgiveness often. But it strikes home much more when we experience God's mercy firsthand and make that personal discovery of Jesus. The late Pope St. John Paul II himself used the word "discovery" when referring to God's forgiveness. He stated, "Conversion to God always consists in discovering that love which is patient and kind... Conversion to God is always the fruit of the 'rediscovery' of this Father, who is rich in mercy."

May the sacraments, including reconciliation and the Eucharist, help to keep our hearts and minds focused on Jesus. The Sacraments and prayer can keep us from the sidetracks of temptation and help us to center this Lent on what really counts in the end: on Jesus and living out his word in our lives of service.
