Wear Liturgical Colors During Lent. We'd like to encourage everyone to attend Mass wearing the 'color' of the liturgical season. By doing this, we will enhance the environment and it will be a visual reminder for us that we are in a special season.

- Ash Wednesday – Purple
- 1st, 2nd, 3rd Sunday of Lent – Purple
- 4th Sunday in Lent – Rose
- 5th Sunday in Lent – Purple
- 6th Sunday in Lent – Red
- Holy Thursday – White
- Good Friday – Red
- Easter Vigil & Easter Sunday – White

Let's see if we can fill the church with the color of the season!

Be Encouraged It's going to be a fruitful Lent. When we're mentally and spiritually prepared, it's easier to stick with our resolutions.

Do things that help you. If you need visual reminders, consider making some for yourself. Many people benefit from the "note-on-the-bathroom-mirror" tactic. Choose a Bible verse for Lent and stay inspired that way.

And let's pray for each other.

Reflections by Fr. Gary Luiten

the 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time - March 2, 2025

The readings today are about speaking. Sirach says, "When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do a man's faults when he speaks." And Jesus in the gospel says "Each man speaks from his heart's abundance." What a person says really tells a lot about who they really are. A person's speech conveys knowledge and love, or lack of love.

Knowledge is a good thing. We spend many years out of our lives learning. I spent twenty years in school. We spend time learning about the truth. The truth is something that people love to know about. And God has given us the scriptures to understand and to come to know the truth. And it is good to know the scriptures and read them, because they give us insight into the mind of the one who created us and who saved us. So, if we truly want to love God, then we need to come to know Him in the scriptures and in the Holy Meal which we receive at Mass. Our young people come to know him through the help of their parents, who teach them about God and teach them to how to pray.

As I mentioned that a person's speech conveys knowledge, our speech also conveys love or lack thereof. Our speech can and should convey love. That is one reason why Jesus attracted so many people: He spoke the truth, but He also spoke from his heart, He spoke with love. He really cared for the people. He was willing to spend time with them, to heal them, and to even die for them. That is what people will be attracted to: the Love of God shining in our hearts. With the love of God in our hearts, and a knowledge of the Gospel, we can be like the good trees which Jesus speaks about in the gospel. Those good trees will bear good fruit, unlike the decayed trees.

Maybe a Lenten resolution for us can be to be more loving and kinder to one another, That way we will become fully ourselves – the way God made us to be, people who speak from our heart's abundance, having an abundance of love and truth.

Since this is the first bulletin of the month, I have a few other items for you.

Lenten Friday Evening Events. Stations of the Cross are being offered every Friday evening at 7 pm. We have a wonderful version of the Stations which I find inspiring. We are showing different inspirational movies Fridays this Lent following Stations of the Cross. The episodes are excellent and a wonderful way to enhance our Lenten journey. We will not have a movie on March 21. That evening we will have a parish fish fry. There will be a free-will offering. I will be the main cook for the meal. Help is always welcome. Please contact Mary Beth or Julie in the parish office if you are willing to help.

Pack the Pew. We will again designate a pew in the church to place non-perishable food items to help support our local food banks.

Volunteerism - Stewardship

Liturgy Ministers: The schedules are live until the end of November 2025. Palm Sunday, Holy week and Easter are available as well. If you are a past proclaimer or have a specific mass time you attend; please log onto the MSP app and get yourself scheduled. Fellow parishioners have already signed up. Don't forget to include dates you are not available under your profile to avoid being automatically scheduled. Availability forms are on the table by the parish office if you are not able to access the MSP program. Please fill these out and return to Julie.

BAKERS, HELPERS & EATERS (All Ages) WANTED FOR Kitchen Konnection

- BAKERS: Want to volunteer to bake? We could use baked goods for our Kitchen Konnection meals 2 times a month.
- HELPERS: Looking to get to know your fellow parishioners and guests? We have fun at our Kitchen Konnection meals. The duties are not difficult, and the food is yummy.
- EATERS: Come see us and eat with us every 2nd and 4th Thursday for a deliciously, home-cooked, themed meal!

If you are interested in hosting, please call, or see Julie in the Parish Office or after liturgies to sign up.

Lent Environment Help: We are looking for individuals to help with the environment (i.e.: putting up appropriate Lent colors and Lent based "décor"). If you would like to be a part of that, please reach out to Julie at 701-282-3321 or email julie@bscwf.org.

Old Palms: Place your old palms in the basket by the Parish Office. Please remove any plastic, ribbon, string, etc. before placing in basket. Thank you.

Jubilee Year of 2025

Profession of Faith

The profession of faith – also known as the 'Symbol' - is a sign of the identity of the baptized person. The profession of faith expresses the central content of the faith: it succinctly captures the main truths that a believer accepts and witnesses to on the day of his or her baptism and shares with the entire Christian community for the rest of his or her life.

There are various professions of faith which show the richness of the experience of encountering Jesus Christ. Traditionally, however, there are two that have gained special recognition in the Church: the baptismal creed of the church of Rome and the Nicene-Constantinopolitan creed, originally formulated in 325 at the Council of Nicaea, in present-day Turkey, and then refined at the Council of Constantinople in 381.

"If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved," (Romans 10:9-10). This passage from St. Paul emphasizes how proclaiming the mystery of faith requires a deep conversion not only in one's words, but above all in one's understanding of God, of oneself and of the world. "To say the Creed with faith is to enter into communion with God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and also with the whole Church which transmits the faith to us and in whose midst, we believe" (CCC 197).
