Faith Formation This Week.

We had a group gathering on March 19, for grades 1– 5. The kids made Lenten Symbol bags and had to find the appropriate item/picture for the description. They then made Holy Week/Easter Symbol bags using the same approach. They learned that the Lenten season ends on the Wednesday evening before Holy Thursday and the last supper. The kids seemed to really enjoy moving around while learning.

Reflections by Fr. Gary Luiten

the 4th Sunday of Lent- March 30, 2025

The gospel this weekend is about reconciliation and about turning back to God. That is, even if we do forfeit that right to Heaven, we can reclaim it again! We, at times, are like the prodigal son. Sometimes we may erroneously think that God is not really important, that daily prayer is not really important, that weekly Mass is not important. Then, suddenly, because of some bad event that happens in our lives, we realize that the grace of God is very important for our very being. What we thought was the least important, namely, God, suddenly becomes the most important!

In the gospel parable of the prodigal son, the older son wasn't spiritually squeaky clean either. The prodigal son had his obvious problem of leaving the Father and wanting no more to do with him, and the older son had a bit of jealousy. They both needed to turn from sin. Now, the question is, "How does one do this?"

There are two major steps in turning from sin. The first step is to admit of our evil, that we are sinners! And we all do this every time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, when we say, "I confess..." The second step is to actually turn from our sin. Receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a real way to do this, to die to ourselves. And when we go through a real spiritual dying to our sinfulness, then we can have a greater rising with Jesus on Easter.

Prodigal, besides being a word which means "wasteful" can also mean to "be lavish." The Father was lavish with his forgiveness, with welcoming his son back. And that's what the Father in the parable today had for his wayward son who returned. And that's the way God the Father is and all the angels in heaven are upon even one repentant sinner. And so, may the Lord touch our hearts and the hearts of our family and friends, to help us to deepen our process of conversion and reconciliation in our daily lives this Lent as we journey to the eternal Easter.

Stewardship Moment

March 30, 2025 – 4th Sunday of Lent
"no longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan."
 Joshua 5:12

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.
